Re: Bisio v The Village of Clarkston, SC 158240

Today the Supreme Court Clerk's Office has taxed costs in the amount of $1,146.00 for Plaintiff-Appellant in the case referenced above. See MCR 7.319(A)-(C); 7.219(F)(1), (5); MSC IOP 7.319(B)(1). Specifically, this Office taxed the filing fee; $1.00 per page for the application and reply; and $2.00 per page for the brief on appeal, appendix, and reply:

Application filing fee (MCR 7.319(C)(1))	$ 375.00
Application: 58pp. (Appendices excluded)	58.00
Appellant's Reply: 13pp	13.00
Appellant's Brief on Appeal: 62pp	124.00
Appellant's Appendix: 274pp	548.00
Appellant's Reply: 14pp	28.00
Total	$ 1,146.00

Objection to the bill of costs is noted. But it appears Plaintiff-Appellant has prevailed, that is, improved her position on appeal, and is therefore entitled to taxable costs. The entire Court may review this taxation of costs on any party's motion filed within seven days of this letter. See MCR 7.319(A); 7.219(E).

Respectfully,
/s/ Julie Clement
Assistant Clerk
