Y-Teens Plan Card Party

Come one, come all to the Y-Teens Card Party on Wednesday, March 25. The Card Party will take place in C.H.S.'s cafeteria, and will begin at 7:00. Refreshments will be served and door prizes will be given out to some lucky people.

If you are interested in helping the Y-Teens sponsor a little girl from India, and would like to spend an enjoyable evening playing cards, be sure to attend this card party. Don't forget to bring your cards.

In Uniform

Marine Private Gary W. Collom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Collom of 2710 Wisner, Waterford, completed four weeks of individual combat training February 20 at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, California.

While with the regiment all new Marines are trained in tactical and combat skills needed for battle. Emphasis was placed on the small unit tactics -- the four-man fire team and the 13-man squad.

Clarkston Students to Participate in Forensics

Twenty-seven students will participate in Clarkston High School's Spring forensics program under the direction of Mr. Lee Moore! The local contest will be held in the Clarkston Little Theater, Tuesday, March 24, beginning at 8:15 a.m.

Forensics includes competition in the speaking areas: Original Oration, the student's own speech delivered without notes; Declamation, the memorization of a speech given by someone else; Extemporaneous, the writing and presentation of a speech on a subject not specifically known until shortly before delivery; Humorous and Interpretative, the reading of a dramatic selection from poetry, drama, novel, or short story.

Competitions to be heard this year are: Interpretative, a scene from Shakespeare's 'Macbeth', Dickens' 'Tale of Two Cities', Benet's 'John Brown's Body', Harper Lee's 'To Kill a Mockingbird', and 'The Diary of Anne Frank'; Humorous, Mark Twain's 'The Local Interviewer', Marc Connelly's 'Green Pastures', John Patrick's 'Teahouse of the August Moon', Richard Armour's parody of 'Romeo and Juliet' and 'Hamlet', and a selection from Jean Kerr's 'Please Don't Eat the Daisies'. Original Orations concern the problems of highway accidents, divorce, physical fitness, alcoholism, and an appeal to mankind to find a happier life through an awareness of the beauty in the world; and Extemporaneous Speaking will be in the general area of civil rights.

Students competing in each category are: Original Oration: Dave Coulter, Vicki Fife, Sandra Smalley, Jackie Leonard, Jodie Strotzer, Arnold Taylor, and Carolyn Masters. Extemporaneous: Tom Masters, Gary Fitch, and Roger Smith. Declamation: Jeanee Slinkard, Karen Johnson, Sue Putnam, and Roger Chrysler; Humorous: Carol Hunt, Dennis Krithers, Linda Wescott, Paul Walker, Fred Yeager, Pat Cook, and Penny Cook; Interpretative: Charlene Bachand, Martha Pohl, Marilyn Wentz, Gloria Bridges, Connie Papi, and Beverly Galligan.

The contest will be judged by the faculty of the English Department: Mr. Don Lytle, Mr. Jim Davidson, Miss Jan Gabier, Miss Jane Sikkila, Mrs. Pat Czarnecki, and Mrs. Hyde.

First and second place winners in each category will represent Clarkston in the Wayne-Oakland League meet to be held at Clarkston, April 11. Mr. Moore would like additional speaking experience for his students and therefore requests that any community group desiring a student speaker for its meeting call the high school.

Birthday Calendar Drive Begins

Clarkston Women's Club members will soon be asking if you would like to put in an order for a new Community Birthday Calendar. This calendar lists schedules for school activities, meeting dates of organizations, birthdays, and anniversaries. More and more people rely on it for information as to what's going on in town.

The proceeds from the calendar sales are used to help support the Independence Township Library. Buy a calendar to help provide a better library and at the same time provide yourself with a memorandum of important information.

Mrs. Barton Connors is heading the drive this year and assisting as advertising chairman is Mrs. Bill Kushman. Co-chairman of club listings are Mrs. Douglas Kuechle and

'So Says Sonja'

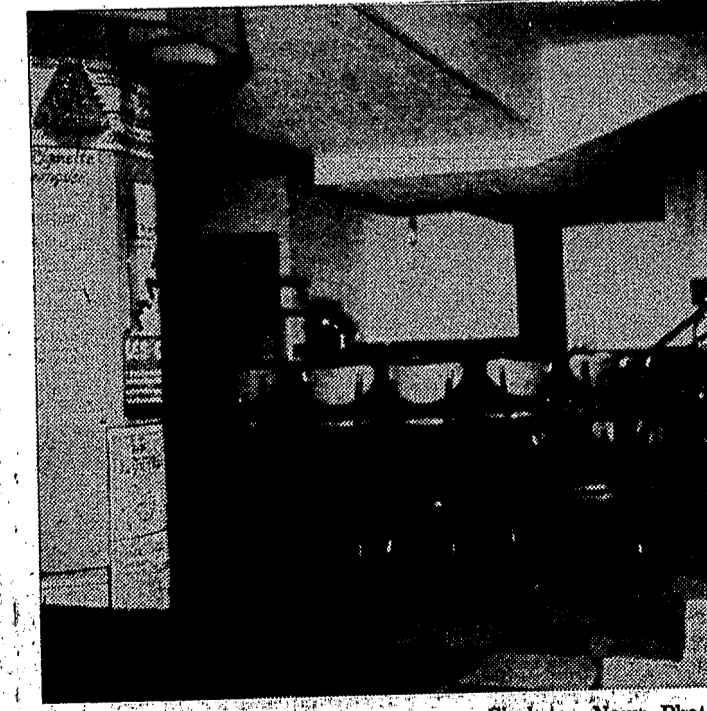

Melody, "Mommie, I thought there were five Beatles," but there's only four!" Mark chimed in "He's probably out getting a short hair cut!" — Tuna discovered recently that five cent stamps are lots of fun to stick on end tables. — I never knew what they meant by 'haste makes waste' until the other day. Trying to get dressed in 5 minutes for a luncheon date I dropped an earring down the drain, buttoned my blouse wrong, broke a shoe string, found the tooth paste tube empty and snapped a button off my coat. Thank goodness I only had 5 minutes. Can you imagine what might have happened in 10 minutes?

Mrs. Bill Kreiner. Mrs. Richard Kroninger will act as finance chairman. If you are interested in a listing on the new calendar and are not contacted in the near future, please call one of the above chairmen.
